Driving Directions from Points North/South
Take Interstate 81 to Exit 222. Follow 250 West (Richmond Road) for approximately 2 1/2 miles toward Historic Downtown Staunton. You will begin to see signs to the Visitor Center. When Hwy. 250 ends at a “T” intersection, turn right onto Rt. 11 Business. Immediately turn left onto Greenville Avenue after you go under the train tracks. Proceed to your first stoplight and turn right onto New Street. The Visitor Center is on the right in the New Street parking garage.

Driving Directions from Points East
Take I-64 West to Interstate 81 to Exit 222. Follow 250 West (Richmond Road) for approximately 2 1/2 miles toward Historic Downtown Staunton. You will begin to see signs to the Visitor Center. When Hwy. 250 ends at a “T” intersection, turn right onto Rt. 11 Business. Immediately turn left onto Greenville Avenue after you go under the train tracks. Proceed to your first stoplight and turn right onto New Street. The Visitor Center is on the right in the New Street parking garage.

airport
Shenandoah Valley Regional Airport (SHD)
77 Aviation Circle • Weyers Cave, VA 24486
540-234-8304 • www.flyshd.com

The Shenandoah Valley Regional Airport provides the quickest, most convenient access to the beautiful Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. With well-timed departures and arrivals, SHD makes it easy and affordable to fly local. Convenient to Staunton, Waynesboro and Harrisonburg, as well as Augusta and Rockingham Counties and Interstates 81 and 64, Shenandoah Valley Regional Airport serves thousands of passengers each year for both business and pleasure. Hours: 24 hours a day

train
Amtrak
1 Middlebrook Avenue • Staunton, VA 24401
800-872-7245 • www.amtrak.com

The Cardinal offers unforgettable views of the Southeast’s stunning natural beauty. You’ll see gently rolling horse country, the Blue Ridge and Allegheny Mountains and the Shenandoah Valley as the Cardinal stops in Staunton. Hours: Unrestricted station Fees: call or purchase online

Glynis Penson, Travel Editor