Explore the Shenandoah Valley, along the Beerwerks Trail as you discover the authentic cities and towns that give the Valley its distinct flavor which is best paired with craft beer!

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY

Skyline Drive – Shenandoah National Park

Take in the scenic views of the Shenandoah Valley. The Skyline Drive runs 105 miles north and south along the crest of the Blue Ridge Mountains in Shenandoah National Park and is the only public road through the park. Roll down your windows, feel the breeze, and experience every curve and turn of this beautiful drive. There are nearly 70 overlooks that offer stunning views of the Shenandoah Valley.

Elkton Brewing Company

Located in the town of Elkton, Elkton Brewing Co. is a family owned and operated nano brewery, serving a wide variety of artisan beers, in a comfortable, welcoming environment. This small batch brewery continues to develop new recipes, as well as maintain our flagship beers.

HARRISONBURG

Hugo Kohl's Museum of American Jewelry Design

In Harrisonburg, head to Hugo Kohl's Museum of American Jewelry Design. This multi-sensory museum was designed to give visitors a visual and audible experience of jewelry manufacturing. An elevated floor plan allows your group to browse the retail store while watching artisans create in the workshop below.

Pale Fire Brewing Company

Located next door, stop by this cozy tap room complete with fireplace, outdoor patio, and collection of vinyl waiting to spin. Eleven taps feature a range of classic beer styles including an American Saison that won Bronze at the Great American Beer Festival.

O'Neill's Grill

After your tasting, have a home-cooked meal at O'Neill's Grill. For over 15 years, they've been serving up fresh, scratch-made food. Best known for their indulgent cookie skillet created for classic dessert lovers.

STAUNTON

Woodrow Wilson Presidential Library & Museum

Start your day in Staunton, as you discover the life and legacy of the 28th President at the Woodrow Wilson Presidential Library and Museum. Take a guided tour of the Presbyterian Manse where Wilson was born and spent the first year of his life. Next stop, is the museum which includes Wilson's Pierce-Arrow limousine, an interactive World War I trench and seven exhibit galleries.

Redbeard Brewing Company

Round out the day with a beer. A true microbrewery in downtown Staunton, Redbeard Brewing Company brews small batches of big beer, handcrafted by one brewer from beginning to end using traditional methods.

AUGUSTA COUNTY

Blue Ridge Parkway & Humpback Rock

Head out to Humpback Rock—arguably one of the Valley's most well-known hiking destinations. Located off the scenic, Blue Ridge Parkway, this challenging two-mile hike offers amazing views from the top of this popular rock outcropping. For those looking for an easy leg-stretcher, start at the Humpback Visitor Center and take the Mountain Farm Trail (.25 mile) leading to the Outdoor Farm Museum.

Stable Craft Brewing

After you've worked up an appetite, experience a true working farm brewery at Stable Craft. Here you can tour hop fields, pet the horses, and get a behind-the-scenes look at the interworkings of a brewery. Afterward, enjoy a tasting of their farm fresh beers and food—featuring an agri-pub menu.

WAYNESBORO

Basic City Beer Company

The next stop is Basic City for a tasting and tour. Reclaiming this "Lost Town," Basic City has transformed this former industrial complex paying homage to the city of yesteryear with its distinctive taproom and hand-crafted beers like Waynesbeeroh.

Wayne Theatre

End your night at the Wayne Theatre. The state-of-the-art performance venue, presents national acts like Robin and Linda Williams, the Glenn Miller Orchestra, Wilson Fairchild, and even America's Got Talent performers. The Wayne also features locally produced musical theater, science and history lectures, and classic movies.

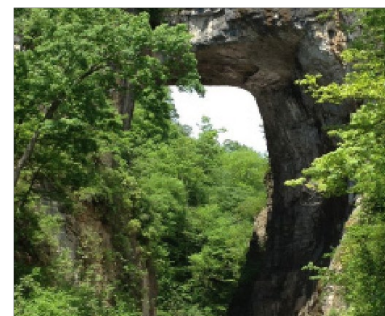

LEXINGTON AND ROCKBRIDGE COUNTY

Natural Bridge State Park

Head south to one of the Valley's natural wonders. Discover for yourself why the awestruck Thomas Jefferson purchased the 215-ft. limestone arch in 1774. Follow the Cedar Creek Trail – for a total walking distance of about a mile on relatively flat land – under the Bridge to the Monacan Indian Living History Exhibit and past an old saltpeter mine and the Lost River, ending at Lace Falls.

Sheridan Livery Inn & Restaurant

Grab lunch in downtown Lexington. The Sheridan Livery Inn was originally opened in 1887 as John Sheridan's stable and carriage service. Today, the dining room offers a varied American menu, full bar, and plenty of space to stretch out and relax.

Devils Backbone Outpost Brewery & Tap Room

Located on a beautiful hillside just outside of Lexington, the Outpost, houses a custom-built brewery featuring a 120bbl Rolec Brewing system, SBC bottling and canning lines and Tap Room. Tour the inner workings of this larger scale brewery and then enjoy an award-winning brew in the taproom.
